

Safeguarding and Protecting Children Child Protection Policy

COVID-19 Annex

Moon Tigers Karate is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and adults within the organisation. This commitment remains a core value within the complex situation brought about by the Covid-19 pandemic. During these challenging times, Moon Tigers Child Protection and Safeguarding Policy will continue to apply and all members of the organisation are expected to follow the Moon Tigers policy for Behaviour, Safeguarding and Child Protection.

It is fundamental that we adhere to the Department for Education and Government guidance, ensuring the safety and welfare of our organisation's community. This guidance can be accessed via the website: <http://safeguarding.info/covid19safeguarding>

Designated Safeguarding Lead

Our designated safeguarding lead is Sheran Harmes and she can be contacted via moontigerskarate@aol.com.

Physical Classes

Moon Tigers Karate will follow the Government guidance on how to implement social distancing and appropriate safety controls within an educational and physical training setting. All participants in club activities will be taught in small groups in line with Government guidance on social distancing, health and hygiene.

All training equipment used by students will be sanitised between each participants use with disposable anti-bacterial wipes to control and prevent any potential cross-infection.

Online Learning from Home

Moon Tigers Karate have issued all participants in its 'Digital Dojo' online learning programme with a set of guidelines for accessing its online learning platform and parents have received guidance to assist their children in creating the most conducive and safe environment for home learning.
